About Jungle Life Camp and the role of Senior Facilitator

Jungle Life Camp is an experiential learning centre that provides hands-on activities for both Thai- and English-speaking student and family groups. We connect people with nature and educate and inspire them to take care of their environment.

Our main target groups are:

- Local schools and children in our neighbourhood
- Private and international schools and universities
- Families with young children that are on holiday in Khao Sok

The Senior Facilitator's main jobs will be to plan and prepare for activity programs, and work directly with students. A large part of the job is to act as a good role model for people of all ages by adopting our four core values of Adventure, Community, Jungle and Future.

Adventure – We actively encourage all our staff and guests to try new things and step outside of their comfort zone as we go on this learning adventure together.

Community – Maintaining good relationships within and outside of our team is essential to our success as a grassroots organisation working in community development. Our job can be challenging and tiring at times so we rely on the support from our colleagues in completing all sorts of tasks, including those that might be outside of the main role of activity facilitation.

Jungle – Our goal is to inspire and empower people to take care of the environment, so we need to set a good example by living sustainably and respecting nature.

Future – Environmental responsibility does not stop at the end of the working day. We encourage all our staff and guests to consider the things that they have learned while spending time with us, and try to make good choices in their daily lives with respect to sustainable living. Together, we can create a better future.
